We are VERY excited to extend the invitation to attend our eighth annual "Focus on Family Child Care Conference" to be held June 7 & 8, 2013, in AUBURN, Alabama, at AUBURN UNIVERSITY'S Dixon Hotel and Conference Center across the street from the University library. This year by way of additional funds provided by PNCBank, we are able to offer a 2-day conference including nationally known speakers. We are also re-instating our Friday sessions and evening Accreditation Celebration Banquet. We hope YOU will come be a part of the biggest and best ever conference exclusively for family child care providers in Alabama.

Directions can be found online – www.auburn.edu. Click on Campus Map. We have planned fun and exciting events that we know you will enjoy. Wide ranges of educational sessions are offered specific to the needs of family childcare providers. Featured vendors include Books Are Fun, Fun Science, iWOW, M.A.T.S., and Hand-in-Hand Learning.

This year we are kicking off our conference with a special lunch and learn session with Jim Gill followed by an all-conference kick-off session. Friday night we have our annual Accreditation Celebration featuring Daphne Cole (Executive Director of the Tennessee Family Child Care Alliance & NAFCC Historian). On Saturday, there is a networking breakfast session as well as another exciting all-conference session featuring Jim Gill.

There are 2 workshops offered at each time period Friday, and 5 workshops offered at each time on Saturday. Each workshop fully attended will result in 1.5 training hours that will appear on the sticker you will receive after the workshop is over. You can find out which DHR, Core Knowledge, and CDA categories as well as whether or not the session is basic, intermediate, or advanced level in the accompanying workshop description guide.
